“It may seem a strange principle to enunciate, as a first requirement in a hospital, that it should do the sick no harm”

The Florence Nightingale Foundation

“While the intellectual foot has made a step in advance, the practical foot has remained behind.”

“In dwelling upon the vital importance of sound observations, it must never be lost sight of what observation is for.

It is not for the sake of piling up miscellaneous information or curious facts but for the sake of saving life and increasing health and comfort”

“I wish too, that people who wear Crinoline could see the indecency of their own dress as people see it.”

“The person stooping forward, vested in Crinoline, exposes quite as much of her own person to the patient lying in the room, as any opera singer does on the stage.”

The Florence Nightingale Foundation

“ For us who nurse, our nursing is a thing, which, unless we are making progress every year, every month, every week, take my word for it, we are going back”
