

2009 Health Care Support Worker Award Entry Form

The RCN Northern Ireland Nurse of the Year Awards ceremony will take place on 4 June 2009 at the Ramada Hotel.

This award is open to all health care assistants and nursing auxiliaries who work as part of the nursing team.

Candidates will be required to demonstrate commitment to the following:

- high standards of patient care
- excellence in areas such as:
 - _ infection control
 - _ nutrition
 - _ dignity for older people in hospitals or other care settings
- evidence of personal development.

How to apply

Nominations must include a summary (up to 500 words) demonstrating the requirements outlined above.

Selection will be made by a panel of judges. The judges' decision is final.

Entries of more than one person per nomination will not be accepted.

If short-listed, the candidate will be required to attend an interview on a date to be set by the RCN.

The awards ceremony will take place at the Ramada Hotel on 4 June 2009.

Attendance at the interview and awards ceremony is mandatory. Any candidate who withdraws from the awards ceremony after interview will be disqualified.

A full copy of the criteria for entry to the RCN Northern Ireland Nurse of the Year Award is available on request from the RCN by telephoning (028) 9038 4600.
