A COTTAGE HOSPITAL FOR BARNET.

ON Saturday last the Earl of Strafford laid the foundation-stone of a new cottage hospital at Barnet. The hospital, which will cost about £3,000, and will accommodate ten patients, is intended to commemorate the Queen's Jubilee, and, by command of Her Majesty, will be known as the Victoria Hospital for Barnet and District. It is the intention of the committee to add, at some future date, a dispensary and a home for trained nurses who will undertake the nursing of the sick poor in the district. Addresses were delivered by the Earl of Strafford, Sir Charles Nicholson, Rev. H. Joy Browne, Rev. D. W. Barrett, Frank Bevan, Esq., and Rev. G. Twentyman, hon. sec.
