

RCN Foundation Learning Disability Nursing Programme

Inclusive Health - enhancing the lives of individuals with learning disabilities

EASIER
READ

The RCN Foundation is currently running a Learning Disability Nursing Programme.

Our aim is to improve health and quality of life for people with learning disabilities.

The programme will last 4 years and will begin in October 2023

9X

The programme will complete nine research studies

Some studies will be specific to countries in the UK

We will be funding nurses in social care to become Advanced Practitioners, meaning they have high level skills

Each research project will include the voice of those with lived experience of a learning disability
