

Pride
in nursing

Northumberland Tyne and Wear Branch meeting with LGBT History Month presentation Thursday 19 February, 10:30am to 1:30pm

Online or in the Piano Room, Culture Centre, Royal Victoria Infirmary, Queen Victoria Road, Newcastle upon Tyne, NE1 4LP

As well as hearing from organisations all around the branch area, there will be a guest talk on sexual health, the history of the LGBT union movement and supporting LGBT colleagues.

Our guest speaker Jason Warriner qualified as a nurse in 1993 and has been involved with the RCN for over 30 years at a local, regional and national level. Jason initially specialised in cardiac nursing before moving into the field of HIV and sexual health. Trust, where he has worked since 2009.
