

Northumberland, Tyne and Wear branch meeting with an open discussion on stronger voices, stronger workforce, and shaping the future together in the independent health and social care sector

Friday 23 January, 1:30 to 3:30 pm, online or Lecture Theatre, Education Centre, Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Gateshead.

Guest speaker Angie McDonald, Lead Nurse - Independent Health and Social Care (Northern Region) will lead an open discussion around stronger voices, stronger workforce, shaping the future together in the independent sector and growing membership. If you work in the independent sector then come with your honest thoughts and ideas about what belonging to a union is all about and how you'd like the branch to support you this year and we will do our best to accommodate you and signpost you to the many incredibly useful resources that already exist for you.

facebook.com/rchnorthern

rcn.org.uk/rchnorthern

facebook.com/groups/rcnntw

