

Nursing adults towards the end of life in the independent health and social care sectors: an RCN UK-wide webinar

Wednesday 28 May, from 1:00 pm to 4:00 pm Online via MS Teams - book to get the link.

This event, open to non-RCN members too, will provide some insights into approaches to nursing adults approaching the end of their life, something that requires skill and resilience. Hear from expert speakers on topics including:

- evidence-based guidance and quality standards
- the Victoria and Stuart Project (End-of-life planning with people with learning disabilities)
- hospice care.
