

RCN Gloucestershire Branch AGM and study day:
From awareness to activism
Thursday 12 November, 9:00 am to 4:00 pm
Gloucester Rugby Club

Your voice matters. Turn your concerns into action and discover how to influence change through your RCN.

Join RCN Gloucestershire Branch for an inspiring and practical day exploring how you can turn your local concerns into real action.

Expand your expertise around:

- how to raise issues confidently
- ways to influence change locally and nationally
- opportunities to get involved in your union
- how activism can work for you.

Leave feeling informed, empowered and ready to make a difference for nursing, patients and colleagues. Includes your branch AGM – your annual opportunity to help shape your branch's future. Places are limited. Book now using the QR code or URL on this poster.
