Celebrating you: career horizons for global majority nurses

Wednesday 9 December 2026, 10am - 4pm

RCN Wales Headquarters, Ty Maeth, Cardiff, CF14 4XZ

FREE for all nursing roles working in any sector and nursing students to attend

Join RCN Wales for an inspiring day dedicated to recognising the contribution, talent and potential of Global Majority nurses across Wales. This event will bring together nurses from all backgrounds to explore career opportunities, share experiences, build networks and champion greater inclusion within the profession.

Through engaging speakers and real-life career stories, attendees will gain insights into leadership, professional development and the many pathways available within nursing. Whether you are just starting your career or looking towards your next step, this conference aims to empower and support your professional journey.

This event is open to all nursing roles. Colleagues from the Global Majority, allies, and anyone committed to supporting and championing Global Majority colleagues are warmly encouraged to attend.

What you can expect:

- Hear from nursing leaders and experts
- Explore career pathways and development opportunities
- Learn from nurses who have successfully progressed in diverse roles
- Discover support, resources and networks to help you achieve your ambitions
- Celebrate the impact and contribution of Global Majority nurses in Wales
- Update on the RCN Global Majority and Ethnic Minority (GEM) Project and next steps
