1. Event format

- 1.1. This event is in-person only. There is no provision to provide live or recorded virtual participation in breakout sessions.

2. Abstract submission responsibilities

- 2.1. If you are submitting an abstract as a Lead Presenter, i.e. on behalf of any other presenter listed on the abstract submission form, please note that it is your responsibility to ensure that all presenters are aware and have read these terms and conditions.
- 2.2. If your work is accepted for presentation, the lead presenter will be sent an email confirming the programme slot, week commencing 30 November 2026. It is the lead presenter's responsibility to communicate all information about their session to co-presenters.
- 2.3. To be eligible to present, all presenters, including any co-presenters, must register and pay the delegate fee.
- 2.4. All presenters selected to present papers must register by Friday 5 February 2027 quoting their abstract reference number. A presenter rate is available until 5 February 2027, after that time the standard delegate fee is applicable.

3. Abstract judging

- 3.1. The Scientific Committee reserve the right to change the mode of presentation if a different format is felt to be more appropriate for an accepted abstract.

4. Presenter rates and eligibility

- 4.1. Your session is only confirmed in the conference programme when payment of the delegate registration fee is received in full.
- 4.2. Where a presenter rate is offered, only a main presenter and one named co-presenter of a concurrent, ViPER, flash talk or poster presentation, is eligible to book using the presenter rate.
- 4.3. For Symposium submissions one presenter per paper is eligible for the presenter rate up to a maximum of 5 papers.
- 4.4. The conference committee regrets it is unable to meet any accommodation, travel or subsistence expenses.
- 4.5. To review our event booking terms and conditions please visit www.rcn.org.uk/eventsterms

Please note: Presenter rates cannot be booked online. You can download a booking form at: <http://www.rcn.org.uk/ED27> or call Event Registrations on 02920 546460 to book your presenter place.

5. Copyright permissions and abstract amendments

- 5.1. All presenters are fully responsible for ensuring the content of their abstract and presentation does not infringe any existing third-party copyright or other intellectual property right.
- 5.2. Conference presenters must confirm when submitting their abstract online that they are either:
- a) the copyright owner of the abstract or any part of the abstract being submitted for presentation at this conference or,
 - b) that they have obtained the written permission of the copyright owner(s) to present their work at the event. This also applies to the use of any drawing, photography or other illustration, or multi-media content included in the presentation.
- 5.3. The deadline for making amendments to accepted abstracts is Friday 26 February 2027. It is the responsibility of the presenters to log back into the abstract management system to make any changes.

All submitted abstracts accepted for presentation will be published in a book of abstracts, which will be made available on the website ahead of the Conference for delegates to download. The book of abstracts may also be published after the conference in electronic format and stored in the RCN's library.

6. Filming

- 6.1. Please note the RCN may record presentations at the conference and make content available to delegates after the event. If you or any co-presenter do not wish to be identified in a recording or do not want your presentation recorded, please email education@rcn.org.uk or speak to staff at the registration desk on-site.
