

RCN Wales morning seminar

“Leadership – Providing Psychological Safety in Teams”

(For Registered Nurses, Health Care Support Workers and Nursing Students)

This seminar will contribute to participatory learning for revalidation

Tuesday 12 July 2022

9.30am – 12.30pm

Online event – to be held via Microsoft Teams

This seminar is suitable for all members of the nursing team: registered nurses, Health Care Support Workers/ Health Care Assistants, and pre-reg. nursing students working in the NHS or Independent Health & Social Care Sector.

Facilitators:

Rebecca Thomas, Senior Nurse Improvement,
Cwm Taf Morgannwg University Health Board
Nicola Davis-Job, RGN, MSc, PGCE, NT,
Acute Care & Leadership Adviser, RCN Wales

Aims:

The aim of the session is to provide a basic understanding of psychological safety and how you can start to build it in your workplace to provide excellent care. Psychological safety is the most important factor in high performing teams. High performing teams are happy teams. When people on a team possess psychological safety, they feel able to ask for help, admit mistakes, raise concerns, suggest ideas, and challenge ways of working and the ideas of others on the team, including the ideas of those in authority.
How can you provide psychological safety for your team?

Topics:

- A brief history of psychological safety
- Models of psychological safety
- Measuring Individual and team psychological safety
- Values and Behaviours
- Psychological safety and team performance
- Explore and identify actions for building psychological safety
