

RCN Wales and NMC webinar:

NMC member webinar: Workforce, Regulation and Reform

(Aimed at nursing and midwifery health care professionals who are registered with the Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC), or are about to be registered with the NMC - e.g. 3rd year nursing students, working in any sector)

Wednesday 3 June 2026

10am – 12.30pm

Online event – to be held via Microsoft Teams

This free webinar delivered by the Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC) aims to provide a comprehensive update on current and future work across the organisation, and offers the opportunity to better understand regulatory change.

This webinar is organised by RCN Wales, but you do not need to be based in Wales to join us!

Facilitator:

Sharon Clement-Thomas, NMC Regulation Adviser, Wales

Topics covered:

The session will include:

- An overview of the NMC's strategic priorities and ongoing programmes of work
- Insight into the nursing workforce, including key trends and challenges
- An update on fitness to practise (FtP), including current approaches and the FtP improvement plan.
- Exploration of the transformation under way at the NMC, with a particular focus on becoming an anti-racist regulator and embedding positive organisational culture
- Updates on changes and developments relating to The Code and revalidation, and how these affect registrants in practice

This webinar is free for all to attend, including RCN members and non-members.
