

RCN Rheumatology Nursing Workshop 2019
Advances, innovations and challenges in rheumatology nursing
 RCN HQ, London, W1G 0RN
 Friday 28 June 2019

Programme

10.30am	Registration, networking and refreshments
11.00am	Chair's opening remarks – introduction to forum committee Louise Parker, Lead Nurse - Rheumatology & Connective Tissue Disease Royal, Free London NHS Foundation Trust Competency Framework Development Diana Finney, Consultant Rheumatology Nurse, Sussex Community NHS Foundation Trust
11.15am	Understanding the JAK pathway – a new mode of action for Rheumatology Dr James Galloway, Senior Lecturer/Honorary Consultant, Kings College London
11.45am	Demystifying the BSR DMARD guidelines Dr James Galloway, Senior Lecturer/Honorary Consultant, Kings College, London
12.15pm	Understanding vasculitis and its impact on patients Dr Janice Mooney, PhD, MSc, BA (Hons) PGDHE,DMS,RGN, Senior Fellow Higher Education Academy, Course Director Masters in Advanced Clinical Practice, School of Health and Social Care, Staffordshire University
12.45pm	Lunch and networking
1.30pm	What's new in managing the telephone advice line Julie Begum Lead nurse Rheumatology, Luton and Dunstable Hospital Helen Smith, Rheumatology Nurse Specialist, Brighton and Sussex NHS Foundation Trust
2.15pm	Providing evidence for your role Isobel Mason, Nurse Consultant, Gastroenterology, Royal Free London Foundation Trust Polly Livermore, National Institute Health Research (NIHR) Clinical Doctoral Research Fellow April 2017- March 2020, Great Ormond Street Hospital
3.00pm	Wrap up and ask the forum
3.15pm	Close of workshop

Event sponsored by:

@RCN
 #Rheum19