

Are you Glove Aware? Celebrating Glove Awareness Week

RCN HQ, 20 Cavendish Square, London W1G 0RN
2nd May 2019

Programme at a glance

10.30	Arrival and refreshments
11.00	Chair's address Professor Anne-Marie Rafferty CBE, President Royal College of Nursing
11.10	Our journey to enlightenment – becoming #gloveaware Kim Sunley, National Officer, Employment Relations, Royal College of Nursing Rose Gallagher MBE, RCN Professional Lead for Infection Prevention and Control
11.30	The lived experience of dermatitis Julie Emerson, Staff Nurse, Peterborough Renal Unit
11.45	A sustainable approach to glove use Nicola Wilson, Lead Practice Educator, Great Ormond Street Hospital for Children NHS Foundation Trust
12.10	Journey of a glove Rose Gallagher MBE, RCN Professional Lead for Infection Prevention and Control
12.20	Quality first – procuring gloves for quality and safety Jane Harrison, Category Tower Director Tower 2, NHS Supply Chain John Tyrrell, National Category Manager Tower 2, NHS Supply Chain
12.40	Gloves – using data to drive better glove use Alice Macleod, Senior Nurse, National Procurement, NHS Services Scotland
13.05	Questions & Answers
13.10	Lunch and networking
14.05	Introduction to afternoon programme Rose Gallagher MBE, RCN Professional Lead for Infection Prevention and Control
14.05	Protecting the workforce – putting our health first Ruth May, Chief Nursing Officer England, National Director Infection Prevention and Control
14.30	Occupational Dermatitis – when an inspector calls Jacqueline Leaker, HM Inspector Occupational Health, HSE
14.55	Glove use – an international perspective Yolène Carre, Infirmière Hygieniste, Centre Hospitalier Universitaire (CHU) de Bordeaux Dr Katrien Vanderwee, Infection Control Practitioner, O.L.V. van Lourdes Ziekenhuis Waregem

15.30	Debate – This house believes the routine inclusion of gloves in pre-prepared dressing packs should cease. For: Clare Nash, Senior Nurse, Clinical Procurement & Productivity Programme, New Cross Hospital, Wolverhampton Against: Stephanie McCarthy, Clinical Engagement & Implementation Manager Tower 2 Midlands
16.10	Can the issue of glove misuse be solved? Zoe Williams, Staff Nurse, Kings College Hospital NHS Foundation Trust
16.30	Next steps in being #gloveaware Kim Sunley, National Officer, Employment Relations, Royal College of Nursing Rose Gallagher MBE, RCN Professional Lead for Infection Prevention and Control
16.40	Summary of event and close

In collaboration with

