

RCN Flight Nursing Workshop

Going Global: Safety... Let's think beyond the patient

RCN HQ, 20 Cavendish Square, London, W1G 0RN

Saturday 19 October 2019

Programme at a glance

9.00	Registration, networking and refreshments
9.30	Chair's opening remarks and update from the forum RCN Critical Care and Flight Nursing Forum Chair Kerryn McGowran, Director of Nursing – Europe, Middle East and Africa, International SOS
9.55	Is the sky the limit? Aerospace medicine and our patients. Professor David Gradwell, Professor of Aerospace Medicine, King's College London
10.40	Refreshments
11.00	Career development in the aviation industry Forum overview about the work undertaken this year on career development in Flight Nursing followed by sponsored presentations from:
11.05	Capital Air Ambulance: Induction and Education for Aeromedical Personnel Dominic Rose, Chief Flight Nurse, Capital Air Ambulance
11.25	CEGA: Career progression in the field of international medical assistance and repatriation Dr Lynn Gordon, Chief Medical Officer, CEGA.
11.45	Commercial Airline perspective: Considerations for safety in commercial airlines Trevor Dale, Director, Atrainability Ltd
12.30	Lunch and opportunity to network with our sponsors: Capital Air Ambulance and Cega
13.30	Mass casualty – Evacuation after a natural disaster from a military perspective Flt Lt Sally Tippett, Royal Airforce Nursing Officer, RAF High Wycombe
14.15	Fatigue Management: Medical escort considerations in the aviation industry (Based on outcomes of RCN Fatigue article and project plan) Stuart Cox, Advanced Critical Care Practitioner, Portsmouth Hospital & Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance
15.00	Refreshments
15.30	The challenge of being a medical escort: Who is looking after you? Giles Hall RGN, Head of Security Quality and Training - International SOS and Control Risks

16.15	Chair's closing remarks RCN Critical Care and Flight Nursing Forum Chair Kerryn McGowran, Director of Nursing – Europe, Middle east and Africa, International SOS
16.30	Conference close

Supported by:

CAPITAL
AIR AMBULANCE

CEGA
A Charles Taylor Company

Tweet about the event using #flightnursing19

Include @RCNccfn for retweet.