

Critical care response to COVID-19

An International Perspective

Venue: Online

Date: 10th July 2021

Draft Programme subject to change.

Programme at a glance

8.30	Exhibition and networking
9.00	Welcome , Suman Shrestha, Professional Lead for Critical Care, Royal College of Nursing, UK and Kerryan McGowran, Chair, Critical Care and Flight Nursing Forum, Royal College of Nursing, UK
9.10	Opening remarks , Dame Donna Kinnair, Chief Executive and General Secretary, Royal College of Nursing, UK
9.20	Global experience of COVID-19 Presentations: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Australia: Michelle Spence, Nurse Unit Manager of the Intensive Care Unit at Royal Melbourne Hospital, Australia• South Africa: Prof. Isabel Coetzee, University of Pretoria, Johannesburg• United Kingdom: Prof. Natalie Pattison, Deputy Chair, UK Critical Care Nursing Alliance• Zambia: Chris Carter, Senior Lecturer, Birmingham University working with Ministry of Health and the Lusaka College of Nursing and Midwifery, Zambia
10.40	Exhibition and networking
11.10	Global experience of COVID-19 Presentations: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Nepal: Dr. Subhash Acharya, President, Nepal Critical Care Development Foundation and Kabita Sitoula (Critical Care Nursing Association of Nepal)• Europe: Johannes Mellinghoff, Chair, Nursing and AHP, European Society of Intensive Care Medicine• Singapore: James Quah, Chair, Singapore Nurses Association• United States: Elizabeth Bridges, President of American Association of Critical Care Nurses
12.30	Exhibition and networking
13.30	Past, Present and Future of critical care , Professor Jean-Louis Vincent, Professor of Intensive Care Medicine, Université Libre de Bruxelles
14:00	Looking ahead to Critical care Education , Dr Nichola Ashby, Head of Learning and Practice Development, Royal College of Nursing, UK	Developing Clinical Leadership , Professor Ged Williams, Founding Chair, World Federation of Critical Care Nurses, Australia	Future of Critical Care Nursing Research , Professor Ruth Endacott, Director for Nursing and Midwifery, The National Institute of Health Research, UK
14.30	Exhibition and networking
15:00	Critical illness patient pathway: Why survival is just the beginning , Catherine White, Former ICU patient and Trustee, ICUsteps, UK
15:30	Current updates on Clinical management of COVID-19 , Deputy Director of Clinical Academic Training and Director of Academic Clinical Fellow Programme, University of Cambridge School of Clinical Medicine, UK
16:00	Closing remarks , Suman Shrestha, Professional Lead for Critical Care, Royal College of Nursing, UK and Kerryan McGowran, Chair, Critical Care and Flight Nursing Forum, Royal College of Nursing, UK
16:10	Exhibition and networking		