

Programme at a glance

All presentations will take place in the Hopin Main Stage

9.00	Exhibition and networking
10.00 10.15	Chair's welcome and opening remarks Yvette Revell-Smith, RCN Ophthalmic Committee member, Senior Lecturer, University of Portsmouth
10.15 – 10.45	RCN Nurse of the year 2019: Leadership and Development Taurai (Tara) Matare, Senior Nurse (Ophthalmology), Whipps Cross University Hospital
10.45 – 11.15	Future of Ophthalmic Nursing Roxanne Crosby-Nwaobi, Lead Nurse for Research/NIHR ICA Clinical Lecturer, Moorfields Eye Hospital
11.15 – 11.45	Exhibition viewing and break
11.45 – 12.15	Looking to the future of ophthalmic nursing workforce development - Perspectives from Health Education England (HEE) Higher Education and the RCN Dr Penelope Stanford, Senior Lecturer, University of Manchester and Beverley Harden, Allied Health Professions Lead (AHP), Health Education England (HEE)
12.15	Lunch, networking and exhibition viewing. The Forum Committee stand will be manned between 12.40 – 1.10pm during lunch, come and say hello to Mark Davies, committee member. Not an RCN forum member then ask what the benefits are?
13.15	Eyes Right: Older People and Driving Nicola Dunlop, Adnexal Nurse Consultant, Moorfields Eye Hospital
14.00	Break, exhibition and networking
14.20	A collaborative approach to urgent eye care in the community - The Derbyshire Experience Carmen Clark, Lead Clinical Nurse Specialist, Chesterfield Royal Hospital NHS Trust
14.50	Networking and break
15.10	Panel discussion - The panel and audience will discuss We propose that the future of Ophthalmic Nursing is our future. How do you (the delegates) think ophthalmic nurses can inform the future of ophthalmic nursing? 1. In clinical practice 2. In ophthalmic nursing education
15.50	Chair's closing remarks Yvette Revell-Smith, Senior Lecturer, University of Portsmouth
16.00	Close of conference, further networking available to 16.30