Developing Leadership Programme

For aspiring leaders within the nursing profession

Are you a registered nurse working in health and social care?

This two day programme explores how you lead yourself and others whilst navigating the increasing demands, competing priorities and the growing expectations of the registered nurse role.

The Developing Leadership Programme provides the time and space to explore your leadership style, your aspirations as a leader and how to promote a team approach that is inclusive, vibrant and supported by continuous learning.

This unique programme has been developed for nursing staff at level 5 (or equivalent), and is suited for both the NHS, independent sector and social care organisations.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- You will understand the characteristics of effective leadership and how this underpins your role.
- You will develop skills to positively influence those around you including colleagues, managers and the wider health and social care teams.
- You will learn to identify and challenge barriers which have an impact on the safe delivery of care.
- You will develop strategies for developing resilience and maintaining momentum during times of change.

COST

£315 + VAT per individual (based on a minimum cohort of 15 individuals)
