

2019 Public Health Award Entry Form

The RCN Northern Ireland Nurse of the Year Awards will take place on 6 June 2019 at the Culloden Hotel.

The Public Health Award is open to all registered nurses, midwives and health care assistants working in all health care sectors in Northern Ireland.

Nominations are invited from fellow health care professionals.

Candidates will be required to demonstrate how their project or work contributed to improving or raising awareness of public health in Northern Ireland.

How to apply

Fill out the application form and complete a 500 word summary showing evidence of how the project or work has:

- impacted on health or social wellbeing, e.g. early interventions to improve health; building new alliances or taking positive action to ensure that marginalised groups are fully involved in addressing the social determinants of ill health

or

- demonstrated strong effective partnerships with individuals, communities and other stakeholders to improve health

or

- shown effective use of evidence or research to inform decisions and where possible, influence changes in services or policy.

Nominees for the Public Health Award must currently be working in Northern Ireland. Please check that the person you wish to nominate is content for you to nominate them. Nominations must be made by someone who is familiar with the work of the nominee.

Selection will be made by a panel of judges. All awards and prizes are non-transferable. The judges' decision is final.

Joint nominations will only be considered if they demonstrate clearly that the work undertaken was of a joint nature. Entries of more than two people per nomination will not be accepted.

If short-listed, the candidate will be required to attend an interview on a date to be confirmed by the RCN. The awards ceremony will take place at the Culloden Hotel on 6 June 2019.

Attendance at the interview and awards ceremony is mandatory.

Any candidate who withdraws from the awards ceremony after interview will be disqualified.

Application forms received after the closing date will not be considered.

The RCN reserves the right to disqualify candidates at any stage of the competition should it judge that it is in the best interest of the nursing and midwifery professions to do so.
