Llywodraeth Cymru
Welsh Government

Betsi Cadwaladr Foundation Scholarship Award 2021

CRITERIA

This award is open to Registered Nurses, Midwives and Specialist Community Public Health Nurses working in practice, education or health care management in Wales.

1. The Award will be presented to the person/persons who have achieved excellence in their field of nursing in one of the following areas:

    – Leadership
    – Clinical Practice
    – Research and development
    – Education and training

    Applications are especially encouraged from people who developed and implemented innovative changes in their practice during the COVID-19 crisis.

    Applicants need to submit a 500 word application indicating:

2. Evidence of evaluation of the activity/development and an account of its impact on patient care.

3. A clear account describing how the award fund will be used to further the success already achieved

4. Proposals for sharing the good practice with colleagues in health care

FURTHER GUIDANCE

- The category of education and training encompasses education in practice as well as academic education.

- Shortlisted applicants will be invited to give a presentation to the judging panel to explore further the evidence and impact of the development/ innovation and to learn more about the proposals to further develop the work. These will take place on Thursday 11 February 2021.

- Applications can be submitted by groups rather than individuals (for example in collaborative endeavours). However, one person needs to be the named person to submit the award and to claim the award prize money which could then be shared with collaborators in further development of the work.

- Following the receipt of the award, the winner will need to provide an audit trail to demonstrate the use of the award prize money.

- The award will announced at the Chief Nursing Officer Showcase conference on Thursday 11 March 2021 and successful applicants will be invited to make a presentation of the development work undertaken at a future Chief Nursing Officer Showcase.